Dear Mr. Cameron:

Thank you for inviting CIA Director William J. Casey to be a head table guest at the annual Veterans of Foreign Wars dinner honoring members of Congress on Tuesday, 12 March, at the Sheraton Washington Hotel.

Mr. Casey has asked me to extend his regrets. Due to a conflict in his schedule, he will be unable to accept the honor. Please extend his congratulations to Senator Thurmond for receiving the VFW Congressional Award for "outstanding service to our nation."

We wish you a successful evening.

Sincerely

George V. Lauder
 Director, Public Affairs

THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF

William J. Casey, Director
 Central Intelligence Agency
 Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

The Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States has scheduled its annual dinner honoring Members of Congress for Tuesday, March 12, 1985. This dinner, which will be held at the Sheraton Washington Hotel at 7 P.M., will be preceded by a reception at 6 P.M. Attending this function will be Members of Congress, government and military leaders, as well as national and state officers of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. The total attendance will exceed 2,000 persons.

Highlighting the dinner this year will be the presentation of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Congressional Award to the Honorable Strom Thurmond, United States Senate, for his "outstanding service to our nation." The influence of Senator Thurmond stems from his reputation for intelligence and expertise. He is, without question, one of the hardest working members in Congress who, as you know, has always conducted himself with utmost dignity and, in our opinion, has added much prestige to the deliberations of the United States Senate.

The purpose of this letter is to invite you to attend this annual dinner as a HEAD TABLE GUEST. Your presence would add much to this important occasion and I know that Senator Thurmond and the national and state officers of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States would be most pleased if you are able to attend.

Sincerely,

Billy Ray Cameron
